

IDENTITY

The Americans identified themselves as Christians.

- Quakers
- Protestants
- Catholics (Maryland)

Federalists were pro constitution
Anti-federalists were anti constitution

During the Revolution they split up between loyalists and Patriots

During first presidential elections

Work, Exchange, & Technology

- Tobacco farming
- Cash crops: cotton, indigo, etc.
- Bread basket colonies
- Triangular trade route
- Middle Passage
- Naval ships, artillery
- Navigation Acts
- privateering

Peopling

- Columbus sailed to the Caribbean in 1492
- Spanish sailed to Central & South America
- Reasons: God, Glory, Gold
- English came to North America
- French came to Canada & West Indies

Culture in Colonies

- They were religious & followed church of England when they arrived
- Different forms of Religion:
 - Puritans
 - Quaker
 - Anglican
 - Protestant
- started to separate from Church of England
- had more religious tolerance than England

NEW LIGHTS

- self-church had own money
- Roger Williams, Puritanism

OLD LIGHTS

- Congregationalists
- Quakers - Anglicans

- Republican Motherhood

America in the World

- Colonists came for freedom of Religion.
- 13 colonies were formed
- Slaves came from Africa
- Freedom for America after Revolution

Environment & Geography

- Proclamation of 1763
- Fertile soil in New England colonies
- Many resources
- 3 sections of colonies: South, middle & New England
- Many ports for trading
- Ohio River Valley divided slavery
- Land Ordinance

Culture in Colonies

- They were religious + followed church of England when they arrived
- Different forms of Religion:
 - Puritans
 - Quaker
 - Anglican
 - Protestant

- started to separate from Church of England
- had more religious tolerance than England

NEW LIGHTS	OLD LIGHTS
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- lit - religion had run away- Roger Williams, puritanism	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Congregationalists- Quakers - Anglicans

- Republican Motherhood